Strategically located in the South of Europe with excellent communications, Catalonia is an ideal launching pad for entering the markets of the Mediterranean, Latin America, North Africa and Middle East. Moreover, Catalonia is an ideal region to set up operations due to its business dynamism, innovative environment and pro-business government.

More than 3,000 renowned multinationals have already chosen Catalonia as their investment destination, establishing regional headquarters to R&D centres and distribution facilities, due to the advantages it offers to companies in every part of the value chain. With one of the highest standards of living in Europe, according to Cushman & Wakefield's European Cities Monitor, Catalonia offers a first-class environment in which to live and do business.

Business Support on Your Doorstep

Invest in Catalonia will present 10 strategic investment locations in the region to companies that want to benefit from new business opportunities. Delegates will learn about the advantages of these investment locations, such as good availability of economic floor space, readily available support facilities and good connections to the main international transport networks. Plus specific details surrounding already existing scientific and motor infrastructures, sector clusters, and on-hand agents for the establishment and creation of new businesses.

Why attend?

Find out why Catalonia is your unsurpassed choice for investment in the South of Europe.
