Business Support on Your Doorstep

Access to finance: making you a business champion!

Monday 7 June 2010, 09.00-17.00

London European Commission Representation in the UK,
8 Storey's Gate, London SW1P 3AT

Helping businesses to access finance is our mission. As part of European SME Week, this seminar is designed to offer an overview of all different types of public and private funding available for your business. It will also provide the ideal opportunity for entrepreneurs to come together with financiers to learn how to access finance and to explore which financial options are most appropriate for their businesses.

This event will:

- showcase businesses from across London who have secured funding from a variety of sources
- introduce you to services aimed at ensuring innovation, entrepreneurship and business growth
- provide focused analysis of private and public funding sources
- be an ideal opportunity to learn about the support and tailored advice available for London companies looking to expand their business and increase their competitiveness in Europe
- provide you with the opportunity to network with similar entrepreneurs and businesses, and key people in the business support and funding industries

Who should attend?

This event is open to entrepreneurs, inventors, innovators, pre-start businesses and anyone who is accessing private or public funding as grants, loans and venture capital.

What is Enterprise Europe Network London?

Enterprise Europe Network London strives to make it easier for London companies and organisations to more effectively engage with Europe. The Network provides a broad range of business support, including: advice on European and UK trade and legislation topics and on doing business with Europe, access to networking and brokerage events, assistance with trade missions, and technology matchmaking. Companies are also given access to European tender opportunity alerts and to two major databases linking European and UK businesses to trading and innovation partners. We offer a bridge to European opportunities, to save you time, money and reduce risk.
